Rt. 50 - Washington Street Project: The Next Two Weeks:

Week of May 2, 2016:

Crews will continue with the Curb and Crosswalk Installation Between The Plains Road and Pendleton. Asphalt Paving is anticipated towards the end of the week if weather allows.

Week of May 9, 2016:

Crews anticipate completing the Asphalt and Sidewalk work between The Plains Road and Pendleton. It is anticipated by Weeks End that traffic signals will be removed from Plains/Pendleton and Relocated to Start the Next Phase of Work at Pendleton and Madison Street.

All work schedules are subject to change due to weather and/or progress with the construction.

Thank you to all for your patience during the construction.

Pedestrians - please cross streets at crosswalks only - do not walk in the active work zones.

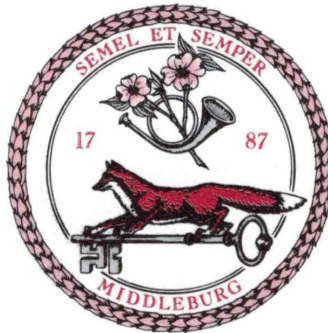

Those of you who are using Federal Street, Stonewall Avenue and Marshall Streets, Chestnut, Locust, Walnut and or Reed Streets to avoid the traffic lights - please be aware of pedestrians, children riding bicycles, pets, people walking dogs, and obey the speed limits, even go a little slower. Also remember - come to a full stop at all stop signs.

PLEASE NOTE: A new stop sign has been installed on the corner of N. Madison Street & E Marshall Street. - There will be 4 stop signs at that intersection. Please take time to note the new sign and stop at all points! Thank you!
